LINE

1. This Court filed, as paper no. 288, on January 17, 2008, an ORDER FILING EX PARTE COMMUNICATION.

2. Plaintiff immediately noticed that he had failed to copy the parties in the case this communication, attached to paper no. 288 as Exhibit A.

3. The next day, also January 17, 2008, Plaintiff mailed the parties their copies of the letter to the Court and Clerk along with a cover letter explaining the omission, which is attached.

4. Plaintiff has attempted to follow the rules of court, makes no excuses, except to state that his attempt to rectify the clerk's continued error in this case caused him distraction.

5. Nonetheless, it is Plaintiff's belief that a letter to the Court and Clerk under the circumstances was the correct and proper way for this matter to be handled, and was appropriate as long as all the parties were copied.

6. Plaintiff apologizes to the Court for any time wasted due to Plaintiff's error.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM C. BOND
